On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 1 to 25, inclusive; and strike out all of pages 2 and 3, and insert

"SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that unprecedented growth in California, particularly since 1940, has created many new and difficult problems of government. One such problem has arisen in the unincorporated areas of many counties where, as a result of large population growth and extensive residential, commercial and industrial development, these areas require governmental services commonly provided by cities. Many of these areas do not now choose to incorporate or annex to cities.

At the present there is no adequate method of providing efficient and economical performance of multiple urban services in such areas. Boards of supervisors throughout the State, faced with the demand for services from these areas and recognizing the need, have been obliged either to require such areas to create numerous overlapping special purpose districts or to provide the services directly through the county departments. In these circumstances the tendency of many boards of supervisors has been, and increasingly is, to provide these services directly. The law, however, makes no provision for assessment of the cost of such direct county services against the benefited persons and property. Such expenditures are made from the county general fund to which both city and rural property owners contribute through general county taxes. Thus a serious tax inequity has arisen.

The residents and property owners of such incorporated urban areas of the county are entitled to have made available to them reasonable alternative methods of providing or securing the urban services they require and to choose among the alternatives the method best suited to their local circumstances. Equity requires, in addition, that the inhabitants and property owners of such areas pay for such urban services rather than to continue to receive them as a result of taxes paid largely by others.

It is, therefore, the purpose of this act to provide additional alternative methods for the provision of such urban services in urban unincorporated areas; to require the payment of such costs by the benefited persons and property; and to establish procedures for the determination and payment of such costs.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.3 is added to Part 2, Division 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.3. URBAN UNINCORPORATED AREAS

25260. On or before March 31, 1953, the board of supervisors of each county shall classify all real property located in the unincorporated area of the county as: (1) urban; or (2) rural.

25261. Real property shall be classified as urban:

(a) If the established or rapidly developing type of land use in the area represents such a degree of residential, commercial or industrial development, or a combination of such uses, as to establish the urban character of the area, as distinguished from those unincorporated areas of the county where the nature of land use and the degree and density of development are such as clearly to retain a rural agricultural character; and

(b) If the nature and extent of such development requires urban services commonly provided within cities, because of population and land use density, which services are not commonly provided or provided to such an extent in the rural agricultural areas of the county.

25262. All unincorporated areas of the county not classified as urban shall be classified as rural.

25263. In classifying any parcel of real property as urban or rural, the board of supervisors shall be guided by the predominant character of land use in the area; provided, however, that as to unimproved property lying along the exterior boundaries of an urban unincorporated area, the board of supervisors shall take into account whether the present or immediately intended use of the land is urban or rural and shall be guided in the classification by such use or intention.

25264. "Urban Services," as distinguished from "county standards of service," mean those governmental functions or facilities provided in the unincorporated area of the county which are made necessary as to kind, quality, extent, standard or degree by the urban nature of land use in the area. In determining services which are urban, each board of supervisors first shall identify the services and activities of county government which are performed only in the unincorporated areas of the county. Determination shall then be made of the standards of such services and activities provided in the rural agricultural areas. These are the standards or degrees of service which would be provided throughout the unincorporated area of the county except for the factor of urban development. The board shall then take into account in connection with its determination of each urban service provided in the urban unincorporated areas, the extent to which the county actually provides at county expense or makes direct financial contributions to the support of the same service within all the cities of the county. Services provided or supported in the urban unincorporated area of the county and not provided or supported in the rural area or within cities, and standards or degrees of service provided in the urban unincorporated areas of the county higher than the standards of service provided in the rural agricultural areas and not provided or supported to a like extent within the cities, are hereby defined as and declared to be special urban services by the county to unincorporated urban areas.

25265. On and after July 1, 1953, unincorporated urban areas shall be required to pay all costs, direct and indirect, or urban services provided by the county. Between March 31, 1953, and July 1, 1953, the board of supervisors of each county, after public hearing, shall determine in the manner above provided the extent and cost of urban services being provided urban unincirporated areas and shall cause notice to be given to the inhabitants and property owners of such areas in order that steps may be taken by the inhabitants and property owners of such areas to select and arrange for the method by which they choose to provide and pay for such services.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3.5 is added to Part 2, Division 2 of said code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. URBAN SERVICE ZONES

25270. As a method of assessing such costs upon persons and property within the unincorporated area served, the board of supervisors may establish an urban service zone or zones in the urban unincorporated area of the county in the manner provided in this chapter and levy taxes upon taxable property within any such zone or zones as hereinafter provided.

25271. The board of supervisors may commence proceedings for the establishment of an urban service zone or zones within the urban unincorporated area of a county by the adoption of a resolution of its intention to establish such a zone or zones, and setting a time and place for public hearing on the creation of such zones. The hearing shall be not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after publication of the resolution.

25272. Notice of such hearing shall be given by the clerk of the board of supervisors by publication of a notice of hearing and the resolution of intention at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county.

25273. In addition to the resolution of intention the notice of hearing shall:

(a) State that the proceedings are conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(b) State the time and place for the hearing.

(c) State that at the hearing the testimony of all interested persons will be heard.

(d) State that the purpose of the hearing is to create and establish urban service zones within which taxes will be levied to pay the costs of urban services provided such zones by the county.

(e) Include a tentative map or maps of proposed urban unincorporated areas and a list of urban services and approximate tax rates applicable thereto.

(f) State that at said hearing protests will be considered by the board of supervisors.

(g) State that at said hearing requests in writing for the exclusion from or inclusion in any of the proposed zones will be considered by the board of supervisors.

25274. At the hearing the board of supervisors shall hear all testimony and consider documents, maps or exhibits introduced by any interested person. The board may continue the hearing from time to time not exceeding 60 days.

25275. At the hearing protests may be made orally or in writing by any interested person. Any protest pertaining to the regularity or sufficiency of the proceeding must be in writing and must clearly set forth the irregularities and defects to which objection is made. All written protests must be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors on or before the time fixed for the final hearing. Written protests may be withdrawn at any time before the hearing.

25276. If the board determines that all urban services rendered by the county are uniformly provided to one or more urban unincorporated areas of the county it may establish such urban unincorporated area or areas of the county as a single urban service zone.

25277. If the board determines that only certain urban services rendered by the county, but not all such services, are uniformly provided to all urban unincorporated areas of the county, it may establish all such urban unincorporated areas of the county as a single urban service zone with respect to such services. In such case the board shall establish other zones defining the areas which receive the balance of the urban services rendered by the county in urban unincorporated areas.

25278. The board of supervisors shall not be deprived of jurisdiction to proceed with the hearing, nor shall the proceeding be invalidated by any clerical error in the published notice.

25279. At the conclusion of the hearing the board shall deny or allow all protests and requests for exclusion from or inclusion in urban service zones, and shall by resolution finally determine and establish the boundaries of such zones within the county. A map showing the boundaries of the urban service zone or zones as finally established in substantially the same form as the tentative map shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county within two weeks after the adoption of the resolution of final determination. From the date of the adoption of the resolution finally determining and establishing the urban service zone or zones within the county, the zone or zones thereby established shall be and constitute the official urban service zone or zones of the county, until modified by proceedings taken pursuant to Section 25280, or inclusion within an incorporated city, urban district or district.

25280. Proceedings for modifications of the boundaries of urban service zones to meet changed conditions may be undertaken by the board of supervisors in the same manner as proceedings for the original establishment of zones; provided that no change in boundaries shall be effective for purposes of taxation for the fiscal year following the change in boundaries unless completed prior to the first Monday in February.

25281. After the establishment of an urban service zone or zones within a county the board of supervisors shall annually levy and collect, at the same time and in the same manner as other county taxes are levied and collected, a tax upon all taxable property within each urban service zone in the county in an amount sufficient to pay all costs, direct and indirect, or urban services furnished by the county within such zone. If more than one zone is established in a county, the zones may be given consecutive numbers for convenience of reference.

25282. Whenever any portion of an urban service zone is included within a city by reason of incorporation, annexation or otherwise such portion shall be withdrawn. All urban service zone taxes collected by the county after the date of withdrawal on property so withdrawn shall be paid over to the city.

25283. Whenever any portion of an urban service zone is included within an urban district by formation, annexation or otherwise, such portion shall be withdrawn. All urban service zone taxes collected by the county after the date of withdrawal on property so withdrawn shall be credited by the county to the urban district.

25284. Whenever any portion of an urban service zone is included within a district by incorporation, formation, annexation or otherwise, authorized by law to perform any of the special services for which the county has levied an urban service zone tax, the county shall immediately undertake proceedings for the modification of the boundaries of such zone pursuant to Section 25280. That portion of urban service zone taxes collected on property so included which is deemed by the board to represent the saving, if any, to the county resulting from such inclusion shall be paid over to the district as the case may be.

SEC. 4. Chapter 7 is added to Title 6 of said code, to read:

CHAPTER. 7. URBAN DISTRICTS

60518. At the hearing protests may be made orally or in writing by any person interested in the formation of the proposed district. Any protest pertaining to the regularity or sufficiency of the proceedings must be in writing and must clearly set forth the irregularities and defects to which objection is made. All written protests must be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors on or before the time fixed for the final hearing. Protests in writing may be withdrawn in writing at any time before the hearing.

60519. The proceeding shall terminate if prior to the time the board of supervisors determines that the district shall be formed written protests against the formation of the district are filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors either by a majority of the registered voters residing within the boundaries of the proposed district, or by the assessees of property representing a majority of the assessed value, according to the last equalized assessment roll, of all the property within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Article 2. Formation of District

60530. If, after the hearing provided for above, the board of supervisors determines that the organization of the district is in the public interest, it shall fix the boundaries of the proposed district, including therein any property within the boundaries of the district covered by the petition or by any written requests for inclusion which it determines will be benefited by inclusion in the district and excluding therefrom any such property which it determines will not be benefited by inclusion in the district.

60543. Of the five members first elected to the board of directors the two receiving the lowest number of votes shall serve for the term expiring on the second day of January following the next succeeding general election held after their election. The remaining three members of the board shall serve for the term ending on the second day of January following the second general election held after their election.

60548. Not more than 90 not less than 60 days before each general election following the first election of a board of directors in the district, nominating petitions signed by not less than 25 registered voters residing within the district may be filed with the county clerk or registrar of voters, as the case may be, requesting that the name or names of those persons specified in the petition be placed on the ballot as candidates for the offices of director for the term commencing on the following January 2d. The names proposed by the petitions so filed and no others shall be printed on the general election ballot to be used in the district, but there shall be sufficient blank spaces provided in which electors may write other names if they so desire.

Article 4. Powers of District

60550. Any urban district incorporated, as herein provided, shall have power:

First: To have perpetual succession.

Second: To hold title to buildings and appurtenant structures within the district; and to provide for the maintenance thereof and to establish rules and regulations governing use and charges therefor, or to contract with the board of supervisors for the joint use of buildings with other county agencies or urban districts on a rental or ownership basis; and to incur indebtedness for such buildings and appurtenant structures, after a hearing on the question of incurring such indebtedness is noticed and held by the board of directors and no protest by the owners of a majority of the assessed valuation as shown by the last equalized assessment roll is made at such hearing.

Third: To contract, either alone or in conjunction with other urban districts within the county, with the board of supervisors or with special districts organized within the county or with a city or cities within the county, for the furnishing to such urban district or urban districts, of such urban services as may be required by the urban district or urban districts. As used in this subdivision and elsewhere in this chapter "urban services" mean those services defined in Section 25264 of this code; provided, that all such contracts for urban services not involving expenditures for capital outlays shall be on annual basis, subject to renewal each year prior to the submission of the district budget to the board of supervisors.

Fourth: To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

Fifth: To sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided by law, in all actions and proceedings, in all courts and tribunals.

Sixth: To appoint a district manager and such other employees as may be required; provided, that employees other than the district manager shall be recruited and appointed in accordance with all requirements of any county ordinance establishing a civil service or personnel system, so far as practicable.

60562. Three members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum, and not less than three votes shall be required to adopt any resolution or take any action.

60563. The board of directors shall determine the urban service needs of the district and may, on behalf of the district, enter into annual contracts with the county, with any special district organized within the county, with any city in the county or with any state or local public agency to furnish to the district the special services required and any such public agency is authorized to furnish such service to the district at not less than the actual costs, direct and indirect, as it is authorized by law to furnish within its own territorial jurisdiction.

60564. The board of directors shall inform the county board of supervisors of the needs of the district for regulatory measures pertaining to zoning, subdivisions, roads, streets and traffic, flood control, building standards, permits and licenses, and other matters affecting public health, safety and welfare.

60565. The board of directors shall prepare and submit to the board of supervisors by the first of February of each year a budget stating the amount necessary to provide for payment of district overhead and administrative costs, payment of principal and interest due on indebtedness incurred for capital outlays, and payments required under annual urban service contracts of the district for the next fiscal year; and it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to levy a tax to be known as the "(name of district) urban service district tax" against all the taxable property within the district at the time of levying county taxes to raise the amount of the budget. The tax so levied shall be computed by the county auditor and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes and, when collected, shall be paid to the county treasurer for the use of said district. In the event that such budget is not submitted, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to require the immediate submission thereof. If the overhead and administrative portion of the budget exceeds the amount that the board of supervisors feel should reasonably be collected for the purposes of the district, they shall require that that portion of the budget be reduced to an amount and in the manner directed by them. Copies of all annual service contracts and any other contractual obligations of the district shall be filed and submitted as a part of the budget.

60566. The county treasurer and the county auditor shall be ex officio treasurer and auditor of the district. All claims and demands against the district shall, when approved by the board of directors, be paid by district warrant drawn by the auditor against the funds of the district in the county treasury.

Article 6. District Investigation Act

60570. Districts formed or proposed to be formed under the provisions of this act are not subject to the provisions of the "District Investigation Act of 1933."

Article 7. Changes in District Boundaries

60581. A petition shall be addressed to and filed with the board of directors of the district, signed by at least 5 percent of the registered voters residing in, or by the assessees of property representing at least 5 percent of the assessed value, according to the last equalized assessment roll, of all the property within the territory seeking annexation to or exclusion from the district.

60582. The petition shall state the reasons for annexation or exclusion of the tract of land, describe its boundaries and include the consent of the petitioners to such annexation or exclusion.

60583. The board of directors shall consider the petition for annexation or exclusion and, within 30 days after the filing thereof, shall send it to the board of supervisors with the recommendation of the board of directors with respect thereto.

60584. Upon the filing of the petition, the board of supervisors shall fix a time and place for the hearing thereof and shall cause a notice of the filing of the petition and of the time and place of the hearing to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published within the boundaries of the district, or if there be none, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county; provided, however, that the time of such hearing shall be not less than 90 days nor more than six months after the first publication of the aforesaid notices.

60585. The notice shall state:

(a) The date of filing of the petition;

(b) That the petition is available for inspection at the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors;

(c) The location and boundaries of the land described in the petition;

(d) The prayer of the petition;

(e) The time and place fixed for the hearing thereof;

(f) That petitions stating that the proposed annexation or exclusion is protested may be filed with the board of supervisors by registered voters of the district or by assessees of property in the district, as the case may be, at any time before the time fixed for the hearing; and

(g) That all persons interested in or affected by such change in the boundaries of the district may appear and show cause why such change should not be made.

60586. At the hearing the board of supervisors shall hear all relevant evidence in support of or in opposition to the petition; provided, however, that if a majority of the registered voters of the district, if the district was organized by a petition signed by not less than 5 percent of the registered voters thereof, or of assessees of property representing a majority of the assessed value, according to the last equalized assessment roll, of all the property within the district, if the district was organized by a petition signed by the assessees of property representing at least 5 percent of the assessed value, according to the last equalized assessment roll, of all the property within the district, file petitions protesting the annexation or exclusion, as the case may be, of the territory seeking annexation or exclusion, the proceeding shall terminate, and the board of supervisors shall take no further action with respect to such proceeding for a period of six months.

60587. If the proceedings are not terminated as provided in Section 60586, and if the board of supervisors determines that the territory seeking annexation or exclusion will be benefited by such annexation or exclusion and finds that the annexation or exclusion will have no material adverse effect on the district, the board of supervisors shall by resolution annex or exclude the tract of land described in the petition or any part thereof and shall describe the altered boundaries of the district as so changed.

60588. A resolution of annexation or exclusion adopted by the board of supervisors as provided for in Section 60587, describing the altered boundaries of the district as changed, shall be entered in the minutes of the board of supervisors, and a certified copy of such resolution shall be immediately filed in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated, and, thereafter, a certified copy of the same shall promptly be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Upon the filing of the aforesaid copy with the Secretary of State, the annexation or exclusion of the territory shall be deemed complete.

60589. If any territory included within an urban district is annexed to or incorporated within any city, the territory shall be automatically excluded from the urban district upon the effective date of the annexation to the city, and this article shall have no application with respect to such annexations or incorporations.

Article 8. Dissolution of District

60590. An urban district may be dissolved in the manner provided in this article.

60591. Upon the filing of a petition with the board of supervisors signed either by:

(a) Five percent or more of the registered voters residing within the boundaries of the district; or

(b) The assessees of property representing at least 5 percent of the assessed value, according to the last equalized assessment roll, of all the property within the boundaries of the proposed district:
the board of supervisors shall fix a time and place for a hearing upon the question of the dissolution of the district.

60592. A petition for the dissolution of the district may be filed in sections, provided that all sections must be filed at one time, and the total number of signatures on all sections must be equal or exceed the total number of signatures required.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Regan asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of California in the matter of James S. Dean, Director of Finance vs. Thomas H. Kuchel, State Controller, which defines the powers of the Fish and Game Commission and the inherent powers of the Legislature, printed in the Journal:

FILED MAY 4, 1951. By WILLIAM I. SULLIVAN, Clerk

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
IN BANK

JAMES S. DEAN, as Director of the Department of Finance, WARREN F. HANNUM, as Director of the Department of Natural Resources, and SETH GORDON, Petitioners,
vs.
THOMAS H. KUCHEL, as Controller of the State of California, Respondent.
Sac. 6186

In 1947, the Legislature passed the "Wildlife Conservation Act of 1947" (Stats. 1947, Ch. 1325; Am. Stats. 1949, Ch. 1440; 3 Deering's Gen. Laws, Act 9250) It declares that the "preservation, protection and restoration" of wild life in the State and maintaining "high productivity" thereof is the public policy of the State. To achieve those aims "a single and coordinated program for the acquisition of lands and facilities suitable for recreational purposes and adaptable for conservation, propagation and utilization of the fish and game resources of the State is hereby established." (Id., §1) In the Department of Natural Resources (Pub. Resources Code, §501) there is created a Wildlife Conservation Board, consisting of the President of the Fish and Game Commission, an employee or executive officer of the commission, chosen by the commission, and the Director of Finance. Three members each of the Senate and Assembly shall meet with the board and participate in its activities to the extent that such participation is not incompatible with their membership in the Legislature. (Id., §2) The board shall study and determine the areas and land in the State most suitable for the production and preservation of wild life and for recreation, and, as a result of such study, shall determine what areas shall be acquired by the State "to effectuate a coordinated and balanced program resulting in the maximum revival of wild life in the State and in the maximum recreational advantages to the people of the State." (Id., §3) and may authorize the acquisition of such areas by the Fish and Game Commission or the State Public Works Board. The commission, when authorized by the board shall construct such facilities as are suitable. Completed areas are to be managed by the commission. (Id., §3) The money in the Wild Life Recreation Fund is available for expenditure under the act. Also in 1947, §19627 of the Business and Professions Code was amended to create a Wildlife Restoration Fund and with the direction that $3,000,000 per year be paid into it from the license fees from horse race meetings. (Stats. 1947, Ch. 1327, §1) The Conservation Act repealed Budget Item 245 for 1947, which amounted to $1,400,000 for use by the commission in construction, improvement and repairs, and equipment. (Id., §5)

Pursuant to the act the board employed Seth Gordon to make a survey of conditions in California. Respondent, State Controller, has refused to draw warrants for the payment of the salary of Gordon and other employees on the ground that the act is unconstitutional. Petitioner seeks by this proceeding in mandamus to compel him to draw such warrants.

The constitutional provision invoked states: "The Legislature may provide for the division of the State into fish and game districts and may enact such laws for the protection of fish and game in such districts or parts thereof as it may deem appropriate.

"There shall be a Fish and Game Commission of five members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate, with a term of office of six years * * * The Legislature may delegate to the commission such powers relating to the protection, propagation and preservation of fish and game as the Legislature sees fit. Any member of the commission may be removed by concurrent resolution of the Legislature passed by the vote of a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses thereof." (Cal. Const., Art. IV, §25½, as amended in 1948) That section was originally added to the Constitution in 1902 and then included only the first paragraph. By amendment in 1940, the second paragraph was added. The 1948 amendment made no change here pertinent.

It is asserted that by reason of the above constitutional provision the Legislature has no authority to delegate to anyone except the commission any powers relating to the protection, propagation and preservation of fish and game; that under the rule of construction, expressio unius est exclusio alterius (the mention of one thing implies the exclusion of another thing), that result must be reached; and that, therefore, the Conservation Act is invalid because it delegates such powers to the conservation board. The applicable legal principles compel a contrary conclusion.

The fundamental rule has been stated by this court: "There is no express prohibition against the allowance or reimbursement for other expenses, but the respondent contends that under the doctrine of expressio unius exclusio alterius, since the Constitution specified two items which may be allowed, any other allowances are invalid. This argument overlooks the fact that our Constitution is not a grant of power but rather a limitation or restriction upon the powers of the Legislature [Citations] and 'that we do not look to the Constitution to determine whether the Legislature is authorized to do an act, but only to see if it is prohibited.' (Fitts v. Superior Court, supra) If there is any doubt as to the Legislature's power to act in any given case, the doubt should be resolved in favor of the Legislature's action. Such restrictions and limitations are to be construed strictly, and are not to be extended to include matters not covered by the language used." (Emp. added) (Collins v. Riley, 24 Cal. 2d 912, 915) (See, also, City of Los Angeles v. Post War etc. Bod., 26 Cal. 2d 101; Delaney v. Lowery, 25 Cal. 2d 561; 5 Cal. Jur., 666-670) Specifically, the express enumeration of legislative powers is not an exclusion of others not named unless accompanied by negative terms. (Ex Parte D. O. McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395; Macmillan Co. v. Clarke, 184 Cal. 491; Slavich v. Walsh, 82 Cal. App. 2d 228)

There are numerous pertinent illustrations of the application of that principle. The provision that the Legislature shall protect from forced sale a homestead for heads of families does not limit its power to provide homesteads for others than heads of families. (Hohn v. Pauley, 11 Cal. App. 724) Provisions authorizing removal of officers by trial for misdemeanor in office and the recall of specified officers, the first including and the second not including those of an irrigation district do not prevent the Legislature from authorizing the recall of the latter. (Wrigley v. South San Joaquin Irr. Dist., 31 Cal. App. 162) A grant of power to county boards of education (Cal. Const., Art. IX, §7) to "control" examination of teachers and "granting teachers certificates," did not oust the Legislature of power to establish the requisites for a teacher's certificate. (Mitchell v. Winnek, 117 Cal. 520) The court there stated (p. 525): "If, therefore, it be asserted, as it is here, in effect, that the power of the Legislature to enact Section 1503 of the Political Code does not exist, the restriction or limitation of that power must not only be found in the Constitution, but the prohibition of its exercise must be clear. It must appear either from express words or by necessary implication. It is not asserted that there is any express prohibition, nor does the use of the word 'control' necessarily imply that the power of legislation upon the subject in question is prohibited to the Legislature. Apparently inconsistent provisions must be harmonized, and each given some effect, if that be possible. To give the word 'control' the effect given it by the court below, some qualifying word, such as 'exclusive,' 'absolute,' or 'unlimited,' must be implied, since without implication that word does not necessarily imply that the Legislature has no power to declare that holders of the specified diplomas should be entitled to certificates of the grammar grade."

Here there are factors which not only create a doubt that the Legislature was to be restricted to acting through the Fish and Game Commission in legislating in the fish and game field, but there are indications that it was not to be so limited. The wording of §25½ points in that direction. It begins with the declaration that the Legislature may enact such laws for the protection of fish and game "as it may deem appropriate." The commission is created and to it the Legislature may delegate such powers relating to fish and game as it sees fit. The word "may" is at least reasonably susceptible of a permissive meaning rather than mandatory or prohibitory, and it has been held that when such word is used it will not create a restriction on the legislative power even though the Constitution (Cal. Const., Art. I, §22) also provides: "The provisions of this Constitution are mandatory and prohibitory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise." (See National Bank v. Superior Court, 83 Cal. 491; People v. Nye, 9 Cal. App. 148; Mandell v. Lyons, 182 Cal. 289; but see In re Cencinino, 31 Cal. App. 238.) That it may delegate such powers as it may see fit indicates that it may fail to delegate any powers. It is true that the provision may impliedly mean that it may or may not, at its discretion, delegate such powers, but if it does, they must be conferred on the commission. But this is not necessarily the meaning or a necessarily implied negative; nor does it eliminate any doubt.

The important problems in the fish and game field have long been entrusted to the Legislature as the representative of all the people. "The people shall have the right to fish upon and from the public lands of the State and in the waters thereof, excepting upon lands set aside for fish hatcheries, and no land owned by the State shall ever be sold or transferred without reserving in the people the absolute right to fish thereupon; and no law shall ever be passed making it a crime for the people to enter upon the public lands within this State for the purpose of fishing in any water containing fish that have been planted therein by the State; provided, that the Legislature may by statute, provide for the season when and the conditions under which the different species of fish may be taken." (Emphasis added) (Cal. Const., Art. I, §25) Moneys collected under fish and game laws are to be used in matters pertaining to that subject and "the Legislature may provide for the division of" such money. (Cal. Const., Art. IV, §25½) It is said in In re Marincovich, 48 Cal. App. 474, 481: "Wild game (included within which is fish, People v. Truckee Lumber Co., 116 Cal. 397 [58 Am. St. Rep. 183, 39 L. R. A. 581, 48 Pac. 374]) always has belonged to all the people of the State. It is evident, therefore, that what the people of the State own they can alienate on such terms as they choose to impose, and that the Legislature, as the law-making representative of all the people, may dispose of the fish in the State's deep-sea waters on such terms as to it may seem best—subject only to the constitutional limitations against discrimination. Within those limitations, the Legislature, for the protection of fish, may pass such laws as to it may seem most wise. The measures best adapted to that end are for the Legislature to determine * * *" In view of those policies and principles, we do not believe the people in adopting the amendment to §25½ intended to place a straight jacket on the Legislature by requiring it to act solely through the Fish and Game Commission thereby created. Nor does the argument presented to the voters for the amendment shed a contrary light. The measure was entitled for the ballot: "Amends Constitution, Article IV, Section 25½. Creates Fish and Game Commission of five members, appointed by Governor subject to confirmation by Senate, with six year terms, removable by majority vote of Legislature; rotates terms by requiring terms of those first appointed shall expire one each year. Empowers Legislature to delegate to commission powers relating to protection, propagation and preservation of fish and game." There is no intimation that the Legislature would be thereby prohibited from exercising other powers not delegated. The main thought was that it was empowered to delegate authority to the commission. The argument for this amendment states that it "will remove the Fish and Game Commissioners from political influence by:

"1. Providing a nonsalaried board of five commissioners.

"2. Appointment of commissioners for staggered terms so that no one administration can dominate the commission. This avoids a sudden reversal of policy.

"3. The Governor's appointments of commissioners are to be confirmed by the Senate which will nullify poor appointments.

"This proposition will give an opportunity to the Division of Fish and Game to manage the wild-life resources of the State on a basis of sound, scientific and factual knowledge by:

"1. Allowing Legislature to delegate regulatory powers to the commission so that regulations may be based on scientific knowledge rather than on supposition and hearsay from self-interested pressure groups.

"2. Allowing the commission to establish and follow through long term policies and plans for scientific fish and game management.

"3. Allowing the commission to employ and retain thoroughly trained personnel so that the management policies of 'sustained yield without endangering future supply' may be effectively carried through." The matter chiefly stressed is the right of the Legislature to delegate powers to the commission, probably out of an abundance of caution to avoid the possibility that such delegation would constitute an unlawful delegation of legislative power. The major thought is the enlargement rather than curtailment of the power of the Legislature in dealing with problems with respect to fish and game.

There are cases which have applied the rule expressio unius est exclusio alterius in construing the Constitution. (See Wheeler v. Herbert, 152 Cal. 224; In re Werner, 129 Cal. 567; Speer v. Baker, 120 Cal. 370; Martello v. Superior Court, 202 Cal. 400; People v. Wells, 2 Cal. 198) In the Wheeler case the restriction was positive and express. In the Werner case the court was dealing with an express and direct delegation of legislative power to cities and towns to enact police, etc. regulations (Cal. Const., Art. XI, §11) and involved the fundamental structure of the state and local government. The Speer case involved the right of suffrage declared to be one of the "highest privileges" of citizens and was express and explicit. In the Martello case there was a complete change in the method of assignment of judges and a former provision that had also been stated by statute was omitted, thus indicating an implied repeal of the statute. The court in the Wells case was dealing with the separation of powers and felt that the construction given was necessary to preserve the courts from the uncontrolled domination of the Legislature.

It is urged by respondent that when the Constitution creates an office, the Legislature cannot add to or detract from the powers such office traditionally or theretofore possessed (see Love v. Boehr, 47 Cal. 364). The instant constitutional provision, while it creates a Fish and Game Commission, does not give it any powers, and, as seen, it leaves with the Legislature the power to give it such authority as it "sees fit."

It cannot be lightly assumed that the people intended to strip the legislative and executive departments of all power with relation to fish and game, and substitute for them, a Fish and Game Commission with unlimited power in this field. For the same reasons it may not be said that it is a special provision controlling over a general provision (that creating the legislative department). It must be conceded that the Legislature has all legislative power not expressly or by necessary implication denied to it by the Constitution. It is not like a provision creating an executive or judicial office, each of which departments is entitled to its sphere of authority under the separation of powers principle. The construction urged by respondent would result in a direct invasion of legislative power in a field in which such power has not been abridged by constitutional mandate.

If the people, by the amendment here involved, desired to repose in the commission created therein the exclusive power to control the fish and game resources of the State, this objective could have been achieved by employing language similar to that used in the provision for the control of the liquor industry in this State (see Cal. Const. Art. XX, § 22).

There are objectives which the people may well have desired to achieve in adopting the instant constitutional amendment creating a Fish and Game Commission. They may have desired, as above noted, to make it clear, that the Legislature could, if it wished, delegate some of its powers in the specified field to such commission, regardless of the principle of separation of powers; that the members of the commission should have six year terms and thus achieve more stability in administration (see constitutional provision fixing four years as term of office, Cal. Const. Art. XX, § 16); and that the commissioners could be removed by a concurrent resolution adopted by a majority vote of the Legislature. We may not assume that the Legislature, by adopting the statute here involved, intended to defeat any of those objectives.

Let the writ issue forthwith.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, May 5, 1951

To the Senate of the State of California
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN: I am transmitting to you herewith a copy of a message with reference to Senate Bill No. 352 entitled: "An act to add Section 35.5 to the Public Utilities Act, and Section 706 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to regulation of state-owned railroads as to safety of operation."

This bill, with my message relative thereto, I (through my legislative secretary) delivered to Jack B. Tenney, Member of the Senate, at 6.05 o'clock p.m. on the fifth day of May, 1951, at which time your honorable body had adjourned for the day but not for the session.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL WARREN, Governor

Message read, and ordered printed in the Journal.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, May 5, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Senate
State of California
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature,

Senate Bill No. 352, entitled: "An act to add Section 35.5 to the Public Utilities Act, and Section 706 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to regulation of state-owned railroads as to safety of operation."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

The Attorney General advises me that this bill is of doubtful constitutionality. He states that the authority of the Legislature to confer additional powers upon the Public Utilities Commission must be germane to the scope of power conferred upon such commission by the Constitution. The Supreme Court has held that public utilities operated by municipalities are not within the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission on the ground that the commission's jurisdiction applies to public utilities operated by private corporations. He also points out that the safety regulations or other controls of the Public Utilities Commission do not extend to other publicly owned and operated public utilities.

The Board of State Harbor Commissioners object to approval of this bill and state that it affects only the State Belt Railroad. It is their opinion that this legislation is unnecessary because the belt railroad presently conforms to all safety regulations of the Public Utilities Commission, and the board assures me that such conformity will continue. They also state that the measure is unsound from an organizational point of view inasmuch as the harbor board is an instrument of the State to the same extent that the Public Utilities Commission is. The Governor holds the harbor board responsible for the proper control and management of the state-owned port. The board points out that this measure is so worded that the extent of regulation possible thereunder is almost unlimited. It is their belief that to split the responsibility between two equal state agencies and to give one agency important authority over the other with neither responsibility or funds in connection therewith, is unsound.

For the reasons above outlined I am of the opinion that this bill should not become law.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL WARREN, Governor

Message read, and ordered printed in the Journal.

Senate Bill No. 352 ordered placed on unfinished business file.

DEAR SENATOR WEYBRET:

Question

You have asked us what effect Senate Bill No. 1702, if enacted, would have upon the right of employees to join a union, or to engage in picketing or other concerted activities in support of their demands for better wages, hours, working conditions, or choice of bargaining representatives.

Opinion

In our opinion the bill, if enacted, would have no effect upon the right of employees to join a union or to bargain collectively, or to engage in concerted activities (including picketing) to support their demands for better wages, hours, or working conditions. While we are unable to predict with certainty the full effect the court will give to the amendment, it is possible that picketing to secure a union shop agreement, or to compel employees in a nonunion shop to join a union, might be enjoined if the bill were enacted.

Analysis

Senate Bill No. 1702 would amend Section 923 of the Labor Code relating to public policy as to labor organizations, and would add a new Section 924 to that code defining the term "labor organization."

Section 923 of the Labor Code, as it now exists, is a legislative declaration of public policy and a guide to the interpretation and application of Chapter 1, comprising Sections 920 to 923, inclusive, of Part 3, Division 2 of the Labor Code.

Section 921* declares that any promise, agreement or undertaking between an employer and employee, or prospective employer and employee, is against public policy if either party agrees (a) to join or to remain a member of a labor organization or employer organization; (b) not to join or not to remain a member of such organization; or (c) to withdraw from an employment relation in the event he joins or remains a member of such organization.

Section 922 makes it a misdemeanor for any person to compel or coerce another to enter into an agreement not to join or become a member of a labor organization as a condition to securing or retaining employment.

* All references are to the Labor Code, unless otherwise indicated.

Section 923, as it now exists, provides:

"923. In the interpretation and application of this chapter, the public policy of this State is declared as follows:

"Negotiation of terms and conditions of labor should result from voluntary agreement between employer and employees. Governmental authority has permitted and encouraged employers to organize in the corporate and other forms of capital control. In dealing with such employers, the individual unorganized worker is helpless to exercise actual liberty of contract and to protect his freedom of labor, and thereby to obtain acceptable terms and conditions of employment. Therefore it is necessary that the individual workman have full freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of representatives of his own choosing, to negotiate the terms and conditions of his employment, and that he shall be free from the interference, restraint, or coercion of employers of labor, or their agents, in the designation of such representatives or in self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection."

These sections, and their legislative history, were carefully considered by the California Supreme Court in Shafer v. Registered Pharmacists Union (1940), 16 Cal. 2d 379. In that case the employer had refused to sign a "union shop" agreement, i.e., an agreement under which he would be compelled to require his employees, present and future, to join defendant union. Upon the employer's refusal the union called a strike against him and picketed his stores. The lower court granted an injunction prohibiting the union from picketing or boycotting the employer on the theory that Sections 920 to 923 of the Labor Code rendered union shop agreements unlawful.

In reversing the lower court, the Supreme Court considered the following contentions of the employer:

(a) That a closed union shop contract violates the provisions of Section 923 in that it deprives the individual employee of his right of "freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of representatives of his own choosing" guaranteed by Section 923; and

(b) That such a contract also violates Section 921 because its effect would be to require an individual employee "to join" and "to remain" a member of a labor organization; and

(c) That it would be absurd to suppose Sections 920 and 923 intended to restrain the employer from coercing his employee, while at the same time conferring upon other individuals (i.e., labor organizations) the right to coerce the same employee through the employer.

In rejecting these contentions the court discussed the history of labor's struggle against the so-called "yellow-dog" contract and against the use of the injunction in labor disputes, and pointed out that Sections 920 to 923 were enacted at the insistence of labor as part of that struggle. Relying heavily on the policy statement in Section 923, the court said:

"In matters of both employment and concerted activity for the purpose of collective bargaining, reads this section, the employee 'shall be free from interference, restraint or coercion of employers of labor, or their agents'. What is this 'interference, restraint or coercion' which should not be exercised against employees? Obviously it is anything which is a barrier to the full freedom of association and self-organization without which 'the individual unorganized worker is helpless to exercise actual liberty of contract'. Who should not interfere with the employees' rights? 'Employers of labor or their agents', says the statute. Nowhere is there the suggestion that some employees must be protected against other employees.

"These and other considerations render untenable the contention that union shop contracts in California are void under section 921. As has already been noted, the usual company union contract is an individual agreement between the employer and an employee, whereas the union shop contract is an agreement running between the employer and the union as an entity. (M. & M. Wood Working Co. v. N. L. R. B. (C. C. A. 9th), 101 Fed. (2d) 938; see 37 Columb. L. Rev. 816, 824, n. 59 (1937); Fuch, Collective Labor Agreements in American Law, 10 St. Louis L. Rev. 1 (1925).) The courts of this state have recognized the validity of closed union shop agreements for more than thirty years. The legislature has also shown its approval of the propriety of such contracts by the enactment of other provisions of the Labor Code. Thus, it is a crime to misrepresent the kind of labor employed in producing goods (Sec. 1011, Labor Code); to make misrepresentations regarding the employment of union labor in connection with the sale of goods (Sec. 1012); to forge a union label or trademark (Sec. 1015); or to use a union label without authorization (Sec. 1016). Considering all of these circumstances, a legislative intention to declare the closed shop contract unlawful will not be presumed."

"* * * the right of workmen to organize for the purpose of bargaining collectively would be effectually thwarted if each individual had the absolute right to remain 'unorganized' * * *".

Turning now to Senate Bill No. 1702 it will be noted that the bill makes no changes in Sections 920 to 922, inclusive, of the Labor Code. It does not repeal the public policy of the State as now declared in Section 923, but adds to that statement of public policy a declaration to the effect that the individual workman shall be free from the interference, restraint, or coercion, not only of employers but also of labor organizations or their agents, in the designation of bargaining representatives or in self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

It is obvious that this amendment in no way infringes upon the right of the individual employee to join any union of his choice or to bargain collectively or to engage in concerted activities with his fellows to support demands for better wages, hours, or working conditions.

However, if the bill were enacted, a court would no longer be able to say, as did the court in the Shafer case (above) that "nowhere is there the suggestion that some employees must be protected against other employees." It would further appear that, assuming the correctness of the statement of the court in the Shafer case (above) to the effect that the right of workmen to organize for the purpose of bargaining collectively would be thwarted if individual workers had the absolute right to remain unorganized, the amendment would constitute a legislative declaration to the effect that the right of the individual to remain unorganized was paramount to the right of workmen to organize for the purposes of bargaining collectively.

It is, therefore, possible that the courts would construe the amendment to Section 923 as altering the public policy of the State to such an extent that the provisions of Section 921 should now be literally construed. Under such a literal construction a "union shop" or a "closed shop" contract would be against public policy. Since picketing or other concerted activities may be enjoined when undertaken for an unlawful object or for the purpose of achieving an object which violates the public policy of the State (Hughes v. Superior Court, 32 Cal. 2d 850; International Brotherhood of Teamsters v. Hanke, 339 U. S. 470; Building Service Employers Union v. Gazzam, 339 U. S. 532), if such a construction of the section is adopted by the courts, picketing or other concerted activities to support demands to secure a union job agreement, or to compel employees in a nonunion shop to join a union, might be enjoined if the bill were enacted.

However, this result is by no means certain. As indicated in the language quoted above from the Shafer case, the court pointed out that union shop agreements have been recognized as valid in this State for more than 30 years, and also pointed to other provisions of the Labor Code, as indicating legislative approval of such contracts. It should also be noted that the court stated that "a legislative intention to declare the closed shop contract unlawful will not be presumed." It is at least possible, therefore, that the courts would require a more specific declaration of legislative intent than the one which may be implied from the amendment to Section 923 before declaring that closed shop contracts or union shop contracts violate the public policy of this State.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel
By A. C. MORRISON, Deputy

The remainder of such amount shall be paid to the treasurer of the city, by warrant of the county auditor, which shall be drawn upon the requisition of the clerk or judge of the court, as follows:

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Senator Dorsey, ordered printed in the Journal:

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, May 10, 1951

Hon. Goodwin J. Knight
President of the Senate

MR. PRESIDENT: The County of Kern cordially extends an invitation to the Members of the Senate and to attend the Kern Crossroads Celebration, Sunday, May 13, 1951, at the point south of McFarland, Kern County, where the Kern-Friant Canal crosses Golden State (99) Highway, commemorating the arrival of Friant-Kern Canal water at its terminus in Kern County.

The occasion of this celebration is the culmination of the dream of many thousands of Californians for the delivery of water for the lands of the South San Joaquin Valley.

It was initially with the help of the California Legislature that the Central Valley Project was given a childhood, and at this date the efforts of the Legislature have resulted in a manful deployment of California surplus waters to areas less supplied with the lifeblood of an agricultural community.

The celebration from 9.30 a.m. until 4 p.m. will provide entertainment and a source of pride to all attending. The County of Kern extends an individual invitation to each Member of the Senate and its attaches to attend with their families and friends.

Very truly yours,

JESS R. DORSEY
Member of the Senate

The President ordered Senate Bill No. 255 re-referred to the Committee on Finance in accordance with the provisions of Rule 12 of the Standing Rules of the Senate.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Senator Powers asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following Opinion of the Legislative Counsel regarding "Effect of a Resolution Requesting Impeachment of a Federal Officer," printed in the Journal:

OPINION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, May 10, 1951

Hon. Harold J. Powers
Senate Chamber

Effect of a Resolution Requesting Impeachment of a Federal Officer—No. 8286

DEAR SENATOR POWERS:

Question

Does a resolution of the Legislature requesting the impeachment of a federal officer have any different or greater effect than a motion for impeachment made by a member of the House of Representatives?

Opinion

A resolution of this Legislature requesting impeachment of a federal officer has the same effect, and no greater, as a motion for impeachment made on the floor by a member of the House of Representatives.

Analysis

The Constitution of the United States (Article I, Section 2) provides in part that the House of Representatives "shall have the sole power of impeachment."

Jefferson's Manual, relating to the manner in which impeachment proceedings may be instituted, specifies the following modes:

(1) A charge made on the floor on the responsibility of a member.
(2) A charge preferred by a memorial.
(3) A message from the President.
(4) Charges transmitted from the Legislature of a state or territory.
(5) Charges transmitted from a grand jury.
(6) Facts developed and reported by an investigating committee of the house (Page 288, Section 603).

The same work states that the house is at liberty upon the filing of charges in any of the methods stated to order an investigation of the charges at once or may refuse to order the investigation of the charges until they have been first examined by a committee of the house (Section 605, page 288).

We find nothing in Jefferson's Manual to indicate that any of the enumerated methods of setting an impeachment in motion has any different or greater standing than any other method. The rules of the house contain nothing to indicate that one method has a greater effect than the other.

We conclude, therefore, that a resolution of this Legislature requesting the impeachment of a federal officer would have no greater or different standing than a charge made by a member of the House of Representatives on the floor of the house.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel
By CHAS. W. JOHNSON, Chief Deputy

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, May 10, 1951

Hon. J. A. Beek
Secretary of the Senate
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. BEEK: We wish to acknowledge herewith receipt of Senate Resolution No. 110 relating to an investigation and report relative to the sale of butterfat and skim from surplus market milk.

A preliminary investigation has been conducted and a report, a copy of which is attached, was submitted to the Senate Agricultural Committee on April 23, 1951.

It was apparent, as a result of the preliminary investigation, that a more complete analysis than the time permitted by the resolution would be required in order that a comprehensive and complete report can be submitted. Accordingly, it has been suggested that the Giannini Foundation of the University of California be invited to participate in the research of this problem.

Very sincerely yours,

A. A. BROCK, Director

Report ordered filed with the Secretary of the Senate.

OPINION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, March 20, 1951

Hon. George D. Collins
Assembly Chamber

Marriages—No. 6066

DEAR MR. COLLINS: This is in response to your request for a short explanation of Assembly Bill No. 2182.

This bill was included in the "Report of the Legislative Counsel on Needed Revision of the Statutes" dated January 15, 1951, inasmuch as the Supreme Court of the State of California in the case of Perez v. Sharp (1948) 32 Cal. 2nd, 711, held that Civil Code Sections 60 and 69 were unconstitutional insofar as these sections purported to prohibit marriages between white persons and members of certain racial groups.

I quote you a portion of said case:

"In summary, we hold that Sections 60 and 69 are not only too vague and uncertain to be enforceable regulations of a fundamental right, but that they violate the equal protection of the laws clause of the United States Constitution by impairing the right of individuals to marry on the basis of race alone and by arbitrarily and unreasonably discriminating against certain racial groups."

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel
By HOWARD P. WELCH, Deputy

OPINION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, May 14, 1951

Hon. Gerald J. O'Gara
Senate Chamber

Miscegenation—No. 8319

DEAR SENATOR O'GARA: You have asked us for a brief summary of the case of Perez vs. Sharp 32 C2d, 711, October, 1948.

This was a proceeding in mandamus brought by Andrea Perez, a white person, and Sylvester Davis, a Negro, as petitioners, to compel W. G. Sharp, County Clerk of Los Angeles County, to issue a certificate of marriage. Sharp refused in that its issuance would be in violation of Sections 60 and 69, Civil Code, which provide that no license shall be issued authorizing the marriage of a white person with a Negro, Mulatto, Mongolian, or member of the Malay race, making such marriages illegal and void.

Petitioners contended that these statutes were unconstitutional in prohibiting a free exercise of their Catholic religion, which did not forbid their marriage.

Justice Traynor, in the majority opinion, struck down the validity of Sections 60 and 69 upon the following grounds:

1. That the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal Constitution prohibits the State from making any laws respecting the establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, based on the concept of liberties granted under the First Amendment.

2. Though the State may, to a degree, regulate religious conduct, it must not be discriminatory and irrational, which might mar religious liberty.

3. That the right to marry is fundamental under the due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. It is more than a civil contract subject to state regulation, but is a fundamental free right, and its restrictions on the basis of race alone violates the rights of equal protection.

4. That these restrictions are not designed to face the clear and present peril of an emergency; the right to marry is the right of individuals, not of racial groups; legislation based on the alleged inferior nature of various races is irrelevant and arbitrary.

5. The contention that marriages between persons of different races create inferior offspring is baseless and therefore discriminatory, and is founded upon race prejudice.

6. Sections 60 and 69 are too vague, in the face of the mixed ancestry of the American people, since a Mulatto may be less than one-eighth Negro, two Mulattoes marrying, though predominately white, would be violating the statutes.

Justice Carter, in his concurring opinion, stated that the policy of the United States, under the Bill of Rights, Constitution, Charter of the United Nations, and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, all invoked equality of individuals. He conceded that the State, in the exercise of police power, may legislate for the protection of the public's health and welfare, but not at the expense of individuals, in a minority group. He relied on Plessy vs. Ferguson 163 U. S., 537, which upheld a Louisiana statute requiring equal but separate accommodations for white and colored passengers, on the ground that it was a question of reasonableness and based on this test, stated Sections 60 and 69 are unreasonable.

He cited California legislative trends which require nondiscriminatory employment and the granting of other civil rights. Although it is a rule that legislative enactments, if based on "some evidence," are presumptively valid, in cases such as this, they must be rigidly scrutinized. He asserted that the State is not rightfully concerned with the social effect of such relations, since it cannot control social ostracism and alluded to the hopeless conflict on the desirability or undesirability of racial mixtures.

Justice Edmonds, in another concurring opinion, sided with the majority upon the premises that marriage is a fundamental right based on the principles of Christianity and is protected by the constitutional guarantee of religious freedom. Such rights can only be restricted should a "clear and present danger" arise, and since none appeared, the Sections 60 and 69 should be struck down.

Justice Shenk dissented upon the following grounds:

1. That the sections under question have never been under constitutional attack for nearly 100 years.

2. That the State may exercise its power over marital relation so to promote the general welfare and interest of the people.

3. That the evidence, contrary to the assertions of the petitioners, shows that the Catholic Church followed the precept of adhering to local marriage laws.

4. If there is a rational basis for the law, it is reasonable and all within a given class are treated alike, there is no violation of the due process or equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. Missouri Ex Rel. Gaines vs. Canada 305 U. S. 337. He cited authority wherein other states had prescribed laws which recognized the need for restraint on inter-racial marriages, none of which laws, according to his research, have been declared invalid.

5. Authorities were cited to support the premise that inter-racial marriages produce inferior families.

6. He stated "that all presumptions and intendments are in favor of the constitutionality of the statute, that all doubts are to be resolved in favor of and not against the validity of a statute * * *".

7. It was his contention that conflicts of opinion as to public welfare requirements especially belong to the Legislature and not the courts.

8. In response to the argument that there was no evidence of a clear and present danger to the public sufficient to support Sections 60 and 69, he paralleled the problem of inter-racial marriages with that of incestuous marriages.

9. He advanced the argument that petitioners, being fully white and fully Negro, could not raise the argument that Sections 60 and 69 are too vague in establishing the identity of a colored person or a white person, under the well established rule that the charge of unconstitutionality can only be raised by a member of the class adversely affected, and that the sections need not be fully comprehensive, many cases supporting the proposition that a remedy need not extend everywhere.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, May 15, 1951

To the President of the Senate
The Speaker of the Assembly and to the Members of the Senate and Assembly

The Joint Legislative Committee on Agriculture and Livestock Problems, created by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 54, Ch. 193 of Resolutions, 1949, submits herewith as a partial report of its activities a report dated May 3, 1951, of its Northern California Subcommittee, entitled "Report of the Northern California Subcommittee on Agriculture and Livestock Problems Appointed to Investigate Certain Agricultural Construction Items Set Up in Work Orders and in the 1950-51 Budget for the Several State Institutions in California," and reporting upon agricultural construction at the Stockton State Hospital, Agnews State Hospital, the New Vocational Institution at Tracy, and the Fresno State College.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. J. HATFIELD, Chairman

Report of the Northern California Subcommittee on Agriculture and Livestock Problems Appointed to Investigate Certain Agricultural Construction Items Set Up in Work Orders and in the 1950-51 Budget for the Several State Institutions in California

Subcommittee composed of Assemblyman George A. Clarke, Chairman, and Senators Fred Weybret and Earl D. Desmond, Members

To: SENATOR GEORGE HATFIELD, Chairman of the Agriculture and Livestock Problems Interim Committee established by S.C.R. 51, Stats. 1945, Res. Ch. 141, Continued by S.C.R. 4, 1947, Ch. 14.

May 3, 1951

DEAR SENATOR HATFIELD: Your subcommittee composed of the above members has examined the requests for agricultural construction at Stockton State Hospital, Agnews State Hospital, New Vocational Institution at Tracy and Fresno State College at a meeting held on April 25, 1951.

Present at this meeting were representatives of the Departments of Mental Hygiene, Corrections, Education and Finance. Also present were representatives of the State Division of Architecture and the Legislative Auditor's staff.

Stockton State Hospital

The Department of Mental Hygiene presented a request that they be permitted to construct certain irrigation works in garden and pasture areas by adding to existing Work Order No. 1208 the sum of $23,900 available as an unexpended balance in the deferred maintenance money at this institution. The subcommittee examined the plot plans and scope of the project and noted that this project was originally approved by the subcommittee and set up in Work Order No. 1208 to include the drilling of a number of wells and the necessary pumping equipment. The additional $23,900 requested is made necessary both by a rise in cost of materials and construction and the fact that the construction of the wells and equipment cost more than was anticipated. Consequently, the subcommittee recommends approval of this augmentation.

Agnews State Hospital

The Department of Mental Hygiene presented a request that they be permitted to construct a new slaughterhouse at this institution at a cost of $23,316, on a day labor basis. Plans were presented and indicate that this is a small building of approximately 1,000 square feet and is probably the minimum size for this type of building. The original allocation for this project in 1948 was $15,000 and the present request represents an increase in cost of over 50 percent.

While the subcommittee approves the general plan and size of this building, it is felt that the cost is excessive in view of the fact that the average increase in state construction costs has been approximately 30 percent. Consequently, it is recommended that the project be approved with the understanding that there will be a re-estimate of cost which will be submitted to the Public Works Board for its consideration and final approval. On the basis of the ultimate cost and experience with this slaughterhouse consideration can be given to the construction of the other slaughterhouses which have been appropriated for, and for which there is now insufficient funds.

New Vocational Institution at Tracy

The Department of Corrections presented for consideration a list of farm group structures to be constructed at this new institution. The following list indicates each individual structure with the preliminary cost estimate made in December, 1950, and the current cost estimate:

Preliminary and temporary services	8,045	5,900
Roads	----	10,320
Totals	$394,607	$329,871

The original amount authorized for construction of this group was $284,004. The current estimates total $329,871, or approximately 16 percent greater than the authorized amount. Since this increase is in line with the current average increase in state construction costs, it is recommended that these items be approved with the exception of the slaughterhouse which we recommend should be reduced in type and scope so that it will be similar to the one planned for the Agnews State Hospital and the governing construction cost of this unit should be the final estimate arrived at for the Agnews building. It should be noted that the group does not include poultry buildings as it is hoped that these can be built in the future out of possible savings and with inmate labor.

Fresno State College

The State Department of Education and Fresno State College presented requests for approval of the construction of five buildings in the dairy unit at the agricultural school. The units are herewith listed showing the cost of each as previously authorized, the current estimate of construction costs and the amount of augmentation necessary to be appropriated in the 1951-52 Budget in order to provide sufficient funds to carry out the projects. One unit shows a savings of $13,000 from the amount previously authorized as a result of the revised estimate. The other units all require augmentation.

FRESNO STATE COLLEGE

Agricultural Buildings and Equipment

Item	Amount previously authorized	Revised estimate of costs after proposed changes in structures	Revised augmentation 1951-52 Budget
Dairy barn	$40,000	$27,000	—($13,000)
Dairy feed barn	16,500	25,000	8,500

Calf barn	22,000	23,090	1,090
Bull barn	10,750	14,780	4,030

The subcommitte recommends approval of these projects in principle and recommends that the working drawings for these units be prepared in order to determine the possibility of making further reductions in cost.

No household goods carrier or any of its officers, agents, or employees shall knowingly pay, or offer to pay any such allowance, rebate, or claim for damage.

Article 5. Reports, Records, and Inspections

5221. The commission may require annual, periodical, or special reports to be filed by all household goods carriers, prescribe the manner and form in which reports shall be made, and may require specific answers to all questions upon which the commission deems information to be necessary. The reports shall be under oath whenever the commission so requires.

5222. The commission may require any household goods carrier to file with it a true copy of any contract, agreement, or arrangement between the carrier and any other carrier in relation to any traffic affected by this chapter.

5223. The commission may prescribe the forms of any accounts, records, and memoranda, including those pertaining to the movement of traffic and the receipt or expenditure of money, to be kept by household goods carriers, and the length of time the accounts, records, and memoranda shall be preserved.

5224. Where the commission has prescribed the forms of accounts, records, and memoranda to be kept by household goods carriers for any of its business, it is unlawful for any household goods carrier to keep any accounts, records, or memoranda for such business other than those so prescribed or those prescribed by or under the authority of any other state or of the United States, excepting such accounts, records, or memoranda as are explanatory of and supplemental to the accounts, records, or memoranda prescribed by the commission.

5225. The commission or its authorized employees, representatives, or inspectors shall at all times have access to all lands, buildings, or equipment of household goods carriers used in connection with the operation of their business as such carriers in this State, and also all accounts, records, and memoranda, including all documents, books, papers, and correspondence kept or required to be kept by household goods carriers.

5226. The employees, representatives, and inspectors of the commission may, under its order or direction, inspect and examine any lands, buildings, equipment, accounts, books, records, and memoranda, including all documents, papers, and correspondence kept or required to be kept by household goods carriers.

5227. Sections 5221 to 5226, inclusive, shall, to the extent deemed necessary by the commission, apply to persons having control, direct or indirect, over or affiliated with any household goods carrier.

5228. Any employee of the commission who divulges any fact or information which comes to his knowledge during the course of the examination of the accounts, records, and memoranda of household goods carriers, except as he is authorized or directed by the commission or by a court of competent jurisdiction or judge thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three (3) months, or both.

Article 6. Proceedings

5251. Except as otherwise expressly provided, in all respects in which the commission has power and authority under the Constitution of this State or this chapter, applications and complaints may be made and filed with the commission, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders, and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon, and petitions for writs of review or mandate filed with the Supreme Court of this State, considered and disposed of by the Supreme Court, in regard to the matters provided for in this chapter, in the same manner, under the same conditions and subject to the same limitations, and with the same effect specified in the Public Utilities Act, so far as applicable.

5252. Service of all process and orders instituting investigation in all proceedings, complaints, investigations, or hearings brought or pending before the commission pursuant to this chapter, may be made upon any person upon whom a summons may be served, in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure.

5253. Service of all process and orders, decisions and orders, orders and notices in all such proceedings, investigations, complaints and hearings may be made personally or by the deposit in the United States mail of a sealed envelope with postage prepaid, containing a true copy of the paper to be served and addressed to the person to be served at his last known address as shown by the records of the commission.

5254. Service by personal delivery is complete upon delivery to the person to be served of a true copy of the paper to be served. Service by mail is complete upon the expiration of four days after the deposit of the notice.

Proof of service may be made by the certificate of any officer or employee of the commission or the affidavit of any person over the age of 18 years, naming the person served and specifying the time, place, and manner of service.

5255. In all proceedings instituted by or pending before the commission pursuant to this chapter, the commission may from time to time make such interim, interlocutory, or other orders as it deems advisable. No such order shall operate as a final determination of the proceeding, and the commission may at any time thereafter make such further orders as it deems advisable with respect to the matters considered and determined in the order or to other matters involved in the proceeding.

5256. After the making of an interim, interlocutory, or other order, any party to the proceeding or any stockholder or bondholder or other party pecuniarily interested in the household goods carrier affected may file a petition for rehearing, within the time and for the reasons provided in Sections 1731 to 1736, inclusive, and the commission may act upon the petition within the time and in the manner provided therein.

5257. Any interim, interlocutory, or other order may be reviewed as provided in Sections 1756 to 1759, inclusive. Upon such review, only that portion of the record in the proceeding considered by the commission and upon which it acted in making the order sought to be reviewed, need be certified to and considered by the Supreme Court.

5258. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing any book, document, paper, or account in any investigation or inquiry by or hearing before the commission or any commissioner or examiner, or in obedience to the subpena of the commission, or in any cause or proceeding, criminal or otherwise, based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, when ordered to do so, upon the ground that the testimony or evidence, book, document, paper, or account required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted, punished, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any act, transaction, matter, or thing concerning which, under oath, he has testified or produced documentary evidence before the commission, or in obedience to its subpena, or in any such cause or proceeding. No person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for any perjury committed by him in his testimony.

5259. Whenever the commission is of the opinion that any household goods carrier is failing or omitting or about to fail or omit, to do anything required of it by law, or by any order, decision, rule, direction, or requirement of the commission, or is doing anything or about to do anything, or permitting anything or about to permit anything to be done, in violation of law or of any order, decision, rule, direction, or requirement of the commission, it may direct the attorney of the commission to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of has its principal place of business, or in which the person complained of resides, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The attorney of the commission shall thereupon begin such action or proceeding in the name of the people of the State of California, by petition to such superior court, alleging the violation or threatened violation complained of and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction.

5260. Upon the filing of such a petition, the court shall specify a time, not exceeding 20 days after the service of the copy of the petition, within which the household goods carrier complained of shall answer the petition, and in the meantime the carrier may be restrained. In case of default in answer, or after answer, the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case. Such corporations or persons as the court deems necessary or proper to be joined as parties, in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction issue or be made permanent as prayed for in the petition, or in such modified or other form as will afford appropriate relief. An appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court from such final judgment in the same manner and with the same effect as appeals are taken from judgments of the superior court in other actions for mandamus or injunction.

Article 7. Suspension and Revocation of Permits

5281. The commission may, at the request of any household goods carrier, suspend the operating permit of the carrier for a definite time during which it is unlawful for the carrier to conduct any operations as a household goods carrier.

5282. Upon such suspension of a permit the commission shall thereupon require the removal from any vehicle operated thereunder and the surrender to the commission of any distinctive symbols or license plates which have been issued therefor.

5283. Upon the termination of the period of suspension the commission shall restore the permit and return to the carrier the distinctive symbols or license plates surrendered or issue such other symbols or license plates as are necessary.

5284. A permit shall remain in effect until suspended or terminated as provided in this chapter. Any permit not exercised for a period of six months shall lapse and terminate. No permit shall be sold, leased, assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the holder thereof without first having secured from the commission an order authorizing the same. Any such sale, lease, assignment, transfer or encumbrance made otherwise than in accordance with the order of the commission authorizing the same shall be void.

5285. The commission may cancel, revoke, or suspend the operating permit or permits of any household goods carrier upon any of the following grounds:

(1) Any illegally conducted household goods carrier operations.

(2) The violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any operating permit issued thereunder.

(3) The violation of any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement, established by the commission pursuant to this chapter.

(4) The conviction of the household goods carrier of any misdemeanor under this chapter.

(5) The rendition of a judgment against the household goods carrier for any penalty imposed under this chapter.

(6) The failure of a household goods carrier to pay any fee imposed upon the carrier within the time required by law.

5286. After the cancellation or revocation of a permit or during the period of its suspension, it is unlawful for a household goods carrier to conduct any operations as such a carrier. The commission may either grant or deny an application for a new permit whenever it appears that a prior permit of the applicant has been canceled or revoked pursuant to Section 5285, or whenever it appears, after hearing, that as a prior permit holder, the applicant engaged in any of the unlawful activities set forth in Section 5285 for which his permit might have been canceled or revoked.

Article 8. Fines and Penalties

5311. Every household goods carrier and every officer, director, agent, or employee of any household goods carrier who violates or who fails to comply with, or who procures, aids, or abets any violation by any household goods carrier of any provision of this chapter, or who fails to obey, observe, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or of any operating permit issued to any household goods carrier, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement, or operating permit, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both.

5312. Every corporation or person other than a household goods carrier, who knowingly and wilfully, either individually, or acting as an officer, agent, or employee of a corporation, copartnership, or any other person other than a household goods carrier, violates any provision of this chapter or fails to observe, obey, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulations, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its violation of this chapter, or in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both.

5313. Every household goods carrier and every officer, director, agent, or employee of any household goods carrier who violates or who fails to comply with, or who procures, aids, or abets, any violation by any household goods carrier of any provision of this chapter, or who fails to obey, observe, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or of any operating permit issued to any household goods carrier, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, requirement, or operating permit is subject to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

Every violation of the provisions of this chapter or of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission by any corporation or person is a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day's continuance thereof is a separate and distinct offense.

5316. All penalties accruing under this chapter are cumulative, and a suit for the recovery of one penalty does not bar or affect the recovery of any other penalty or forfeiture or bar any criminal prosecution against any person or corporation, or any officer, director, agent or employee thereof, or any other corporation or person, or bar the exercise by the commission of its power to punish for contempt.

5317. Actions to recover penalties under this chapter shall be brought in the name of the people of the State of California, in the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of, if any, has its principal place of business, or in which the person, if any, complained of, resides. The action shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the attorney of the commission.

5318. In any such action, all penalties incurred up to the time of the commencement of the action may be sued for and recovered. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions.

5319. All penalties recovered by the State in any action pursuant to this chapter, together with the costs thereof, shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund. Any such action may be compromised or discontinued on application of the commission upon such terms as the court approves and orders.

SEC. 26. Section 25 of this act becomes operative only if Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code is enacted by the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said Division 2 takes effect, at which time Sections 1 to 24, inclusive, of this act are repealed."

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

To the Honorable Members of the Senate
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 129, "An act making an appropriation to the Emergency Fund in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 277, Budget Act of 1950, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

This appropriation is required to meet a deficiency in the Emergency Fund caused largely by price increases.

Respectfully submitted,
